

The Defense Against Temptation

Psalm 1

When temptation presents itself to us, the result is dependent upon the amount of time we have spent on our relationship with God. Lies are constantly being thrown at us. So what is our defense? The Psalmist speaks wisdom to those who meditate on Scripture consistently, indicating that these individuals will stand firm when temptation presents itself to us.