Genesis 1:26-30

GENESIS

1.27

God created humankind in his own image
in the image of God he created them, male and female he created them.

An aerial photograph of a rugged, rocky coastline with white foam from breaking waves. A large, semi-transparent circular graphic is centered over the image. This graphic consists of several concentric rings: an outermost dark blue ring, followed by a yellow ring, a red ring, and an innermost ring that appears to be a lighter blue or white. The text "DIFFERENT IMAGE" is superimposed over the center of this graphic.

The earth had been completely unformed and empty... God had formed it and filled it – but not completely...

as God's representatives, we carry on where God left off

GENESIS

1.28

God blessed them and said to them,
“Be fruitful and multiply!

Fill the earth and subdue it!

Rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air and every creature that moves on the ground.”

An aerial photograph of a rugged, rocky coastline with white foam from breaking waves. A large, semi-transparent circular graphic is centered over the image. This graphic consists of several concentric rings: an outermost dark blue ring, followed by a yellow ring, a red ring, and an innermost ring that appears to be a textured, brownish-grey surface. The text is overlaid on the center of this graphic.

GENESIS

1.29-30

Then God said, “I now give you every seed-bearing plant... They will be yours for food.

GENESIS

1.29-30

And to all the animals of the earth...
everything that has the breath of life in it
– I give every green plant for food.”
It was so.

An aerial photograph of a coastline with a circular graphic overlay. The graphic consists of a dark blue outer ring, a yellow inner ring, and a central circular area containing a satellite-style image of a coastline. The text is centered over the graphic.

We share in doing the things that God has done in Creation:

bringing order out of chaos,
creatively building a civilization...
caring for all that God has made.

He could have just spoken the word and created millions of people in thousands of human settlements, but he didn't.

He made it our job to develop and build this society.
