On the Road: A tough teacher's alter ego

Psalm

105.6-10

O children of Abraham, God's servant,
you descendants of Jacob,

God's chosen ones!

He is the Lord our God; he carries out judgment throughout the earth.

PSALMS

Psalm

105.6-10

He always remembers his covenantal decree,
the promise he made to a thousand generations –

PSALMS

Psalm

105.6-10

the promise he made to Abraham,
the promise he made by oath to Isaac!
He gave it to Jacob as a decree,
to Israel as a lasting promise,

PSALMS

Psalm

105.12-15

When they were few in number,
just a very few and resident aliens within it,
they wandered from nation to nation,
and from one kingdom to another.

PSALMS

Psalm

105.12-15

He let no one oppress them;
he disciplined kings for their sake,
saying, “Don’t touch my chosen ones!
Don’t harm my prophets!”

Psalm

105.39-42

He spread out a cloud for a cover,
and provided a fire to light up the night.
They asked for food, and he sent quails;
he satisfied them with food from the sky.

PSALMS

Psalm

105.39-42

He opened up a rock and water flowed out;
a river ran through dry regions.
Yes, he remembered the sacred promise
he made to Abraham his servant.

PSALMS

Psalm

105.43-45

When he led his people out, they rejoiced;
his chosen ones shouted with joy.

He handed the territory of nations over to them, and they took possession of what other peoples had produced,
